Pledge of Allegiance

Chemics, the 2019 MHS final homecoming court elections are now taking place. You will find an electronic ballot in your school email. Voting will end at noon tomorrow, Friday, September 13. The class with the greatest voting participation will be the first class to choose their hall decorating theme for the Midland High/Dow High spirit week in October.

Calling all of you kind Chemics . . . please join SAVE club and help us read some great books to kids in our elementary schools after school. Come to the informational/training meeting today at 2:30 in Ms. Bank's room (356). See Ms. Bank or Ms. Dodick for more information. Let's help keep the future kind, Chemics, one story at a time.

Juniors and Seniors: There's a nice line-up of colleges that are coming next week for College Visits! Those include, Grand Valley State University, Hiram College, Western Michigan, and University of Michigan. If you are interested in any of these colleges or universities you must go to the Counseling Center to sign-up so you can be excused from class. You may also pick up a complete listing of the College Visits schedule for this fall.

If you're interested in becoming a delegate from a country around the world and serve on a real-life committee. Then you should join model UN and come to the informational meeting on Friday at 4:00 PM in Mr. Mulvaney's room 328. Please contact Therese Joffre or Maddie Dollard if you have questions or cannot make it to the meeting.

The Chartwells Cruisin' Kitchen food truck plans to make a special one-day appearance at Midland High School next Wednesday, September 18th. They'll be serving up some great street eat taco specials.

Good Morning Chemics and welcome back!- WAIT? You haven't heard about MHS' own Gender Sexuality alliance club? Well you can trust me that it is worth attending! Come today to room 111, the meeting will be from 3:30-4:30! We will be elaborating and discussing this year's plans and activities! New members are welcome and we hope to see you there!

Do you have anything to on Thursdays and are you into Anime? Come join Anime Club every Thursday from 3:30-4:30 after 7th hour in room 340! We hope to see you there.

Good morning Chemics. This week is National Suicide Awareness Week. Today you might see students carrying posters with statistics and quotes on them. We ask that you respect these students and not let the conversation end.
